Came by your house the other night... It was dark... not a single light

But I could hear right through the door, Baby- Baby, I want more!

It's wrong... to treat me so wrong. It's bad... to treat me so bad.

love you. I still love you. Yes I do.

Thought you were the best girl I ever knew.

You drove my car... Spent my money, too.

We made love night and day.

But now, there is only one thing I have to say...

.....
Can't stop this feeling inside.

Wanting you is something I cannot hide.

I should tell you to go away.

But, tell me you'll come back to stay.
